

All My Children Episode Recap Monday, September 19, 2011

Written by Linda Marshall-Smith
Sunday, 18 September 2011 16:00

At ConFusion, Liza tells Cara that David can be out of prison as soon as 18 months -- if he stays on good behavior. However, Liza doesn't think anyone will be waiting for David when he gets out. Cara clears her throat; uh, she will ... because she is pregnant with David's baby! Liza covers her shock as she wishes Cara luck; she is going to need it with David as her baby daddy! Cara is affected when Liza tells her that one of the hardest things about single parenting is not having anyone to celebrate the child's milestones with. Meantime---

At the park, Colby finds Maya reading a course catalog with one hand and rocking Lucy's stroller with the other. Maya confesses that she doesn't feel she can take care of Lucy and go to school at the same time. Maybe Lucy is better off with the Hubbards after all. Colby assures Maya that Lucy belongs to her; they have such a strong bond! Maya confides that she was afraid her initial abandonment of Lucy may have injured their relationship. She vows to make all the right choices for her Lucy going forward. When Colby suggests moving back in with the Hubbard's, Maya reveals she is too scared to do that. Liza arrives and tells Maya that if she is going to live with them, she will have a curfew of eight o'clock. Upset, Maya leaves. Colby turns to Liza; why did she do that? Liza and Colby return to ConFusion where Liza explains that she believes Maya and Lucy belong with the Hubbards, so this is her way of making Maya go back. Colby gets it, but fears that Maya will leave town instead.

Jesse is stunned when Angie's eyes lock onto his. Angie explains she can see that he is crying. Overjoyed, Jesse touches Angie's cheek. Angie drinks in Jesse's face, happy that his is the first she can see. She asks to see David immediately, so Jesse gives Angie a pair of sunglasses and says he will drive her. At the police station, David gives Griffin a slip of paper with the names of the remaining Orpheus patients. He urges Griffin to save their lives because he can't. Griffin leaves, unsure, but tells Cara about it. Cara thinks Griffin should do it; it's the right thing!

Randi, Frankie, Brot and Natalia enter Krystal's to plan Brot and Natalia's wedding at the loft. They think they need to liven the place up now that Maya and Lucy left. However Natalia doesn't want to both Angie, but Jesse squashes her concerns when he bursts in with the good news. Angie can see! The light came back on! Griffin arrives to hear the good news and is struck by the fact that David's miracle medical procedure/research made the Hubbard's so happy. Determined he heads to David's secret lab where he dons some latex gloves and gets to work.

All My Children Episode Recap Monday, September 19, 2011

Written by Linda Marshall-Smith
Sunday, 18 September 2011 16:00

Angie arrives at the police station to talk to David. When she tells David she can see, David impulsively hugs her. He's so happy for her! Later, Cara arrives and tells David that she wants him in their baby's life. David, again, is overjoyed (and dare we say it, a bit humbled) as Cara promises to visit him in prison and puts his hand on her belly.

Jesse heads to the park where he finds Maya. He apologizes for being so hard on her, but Maya knows he was protecting Angie. Maya is thrilled when she learns Angie can see and agrees to take Lucy to visit Angie. Later, Jesse returns home to find Angie sitting in the dark. Angie explains she wants to remember where she was in order to appreciate where she is now. She takes Jesse's hands and tells him that she realizes how selfish she has been. She was so angry with Jesse when she learned about Ellie's death that she acted like Jesse couldn't grieve for their daughter either. She sees now that she almost gave up on their marriage and is glad that Jesse didn't. Can Jesse forgive her? Tears fill Jesse's eyes as he says Angie has nothing to apologize for. And just like that, the Hubbards are back! Later Maya and Lucy arrive. Angie cries as she sees Lucy's sweet smile. Maya confesses that Liza's place doesn't feel like home. Angie promises that she and Jesse will help Maya become financially independent and welcomes Maya and Lucy into their family. Frankie, Randi, Natalia and Brot arrive. Angie is thrilled to learn that Brot and Natalia are getting married. Everyone is happy that Maya and Lucy are back. Angie grabs a camera and sets the timer as everyone huddles together for the new Hubbard family portrait.

At ConFusion Liza cries tears of joy when Colby tells her that Maya and Lucy are moving back in with the Hubbards. Liza is happy that Angie and Jesse got their happy ending. Colby thinks there is a happy ending for her and Mom as well as she takes Liza's hand.

Back at the police station JR gets into a fight with Krystal and Marissa. He demands to see AJ, but they remind him that they have a restraining order on him. JR is convinced that Babe is alive and vows to find her. When he does, he will take AJ from Marissa and be a real family with AJ and Babe. Later Krystal and Marissa head to Krystal's where Marissa asks Krystal if she believes Babe is still alive. Krystal doesn't want to hope and firmly believes they should let Babe's memory rest in peace. Meanwhile JR heads home where he finds a photo of Babe. He looks at the photo and at his gun. Uh-oh, what is JR up to?