

Liza wants to make the fact that Kendall was the one who drove Greenlee off the road the cornerstone for David's defense in court. David, however, insists Greenlee can never learn the truth and tells Liza he wants to plea bargain with the District Attorney. Greenlee's on a mission to find out what happened on the night of her accident and becomes angry at Erica, and later Jack, when she realizes they're holding information from her. Greenlee catches Erica leaving a message for Kendall.

Meanwhile, Tad starts his new job as the manager of Ryan's casino but his shift is cut short when Angie calls to tell him Damon and Colby were involved in a car accident. Tad, Liza and Adam all converge at the hospital, where it's determined that Colby will be fine but Damon needs surgery to repair the breaks in one of his arms. Adam is devastated when he sees that Brooke was the driver of the other car and is in grave shape. Adam pours out his heart to an unconscious Brooke.

Later, Jesse finds proof that Damon was sending a text message at the time of the accident. Madison becomes angry when Ryan won't extend her a line of credit at the casino and implies she needs help. JR continues with his plan to use the trip to Washington to get Annie out of Adam's life. For a brief moment, Annie and JR share a genuine connection.
