

All My Children Episode Recap, Monday, March 15, 2010

Written by Laurie Bedigian
Saturday, 02 April 2011 08:55

David surprises Adam, who's having trouble breathing, when he emerges from the tunnels. Adam's certain David is going to kill him but David takes action to save his life. David has a proposition for Adam and suggests Adam let him hide out in the mansion in exchange for David acting as his personal physician so the world won't find out just how sick he really is.

Annie blames Brooke when Adam rebuffs her attempt to seduce him. Brooke warns Annie she'll be keeping a close eye on her just as JR asked her to.

Jack tries to mediate the situation between Erica and Greenlee at Fusion. In the end, Greenlee and Erica agree to a competition in which they'll both launch a cosmetics line and whoever comes out on top gets the company while the other walks away. Erica and Greenlee are both confident they'll win.

Tad explains his history with Hillary to Damon and doesn't blame her for not wanting to return to Pine Valley. Tad gives Jesse the go ahead to have Damon's DNA tested to see if he could be his son.