

All My Children Episode Recap, Wednesday, March 17, 2010

Written by Laurie Bedigian
Saturday, 02 April 2011 09:05

---

Wanting to throw Jesse off track, Adam allows him and his men to search the mansion but David cleverly eludes them. Greenlee finds David after Jesse leaves and is caught off guard when David impulsively kisses her. David and Greenlee both dismiss the kiss but its clear it meant something to him.

Meanwhile, Tad desperately wants to make contact with Hillary after getting confirmation that Damon is his son. Angie would take action against Damon when she finds him pocketing the bottle of pills he found in the trash but quickly pulls back after noticing the prescription belongs to Frankie.

Later, Amanda throws Jake for a loop when she tells him she'd like to start working again and probes Madison about any possible openings at Fusion.

Ryan reveals to Jake that he bought the casino out from under Zach using a dummy corporation he formed as a front for Cambias. Madison laments to Ryan that she fears losing her job because she forgot to follow through with securing the location for Greenlee's photo shoot. Ryan comes to Madison's rescue when he offers to let her use the casino for Greenlee's new ad campaign.