It takes a lot to keep a good man down and this week, Dusty takes matters into his own hands when he is the one who investigates his attack. What does he discover? Here's what we do know. Before the week is out, Dusty and Rocco have an altercation. Who will walk away the victor?

While on the other side of town, Craig has his hands full as Gabriel continues to press Craig's buttons. What will it take for Craig to set Gabriel straight? Whatever it is, it may be put on a back burner as Gabriel has other things on his mind – like trying to impress Liberty. Does he succeed?

At the same time, Katie throws an engagement party for Henry and Vienna. Talk about one big happy family. Does the party go off without a hitch? While in other family developments, Meg and Paul bond with their daughter. How will Emily feel about all this bonding? Will she be displeased? Find out when you tune in to As the World Turns this week.
