At this point, Holden's probably wishing he had stayed "dead," considering the mess he's now in, regarding Damian's supposed death. He's determined to prove he didn't kill Damian, but much to his chagrin, he's stuck in the police station—but not for long. Who comes to his rescue? Meanwhile, Faith comes clean to Lily about what she's been up to. How will Lily react?

On the other side of town, Jack gets news about Janet's pregnancy. Will he be there for Janet, though his heart is with Carly? If the baby turns out to be Dusty's, will Jack's feeling of "obligation" disappear? Before week's end, Carly has good news for Sage, and a gun is fired. Who pulls the trigger? Don't touch that remote. Keep it tuned to As the World Turns all week to see what unfolds.
