Could be that it's the end of the line for Iris. As circumstances develop this week, she fears that she's been caught. But has she?

Meantime, as Iris struggles with her perils, Henry and Will visit the warehouse. This time, however, they have a psychic in tow. Will the clairvoyant read the situation correctly and help track down Babs? Speaking of Barbara, low and behold, it's Emily that finds her in the wine cellar. Does Emily get there in time?

While in some romantic developments, it looks like Reid tends to have a bit of a jealous nature. Luke, who has a long history with Noah, can't seem to stop talking about him. This upsets Reid. He does not like that Luke likes to talk about Noah. Will he confront Luke about it? If so, how will Luke ameliorate the situation?

Shortly thereafter, Craig and Blackthorn face off. Craig even goes so far as to accuse Blackthorn of attacking Johnny. Will Blackthorn fess up? Finally, the week wraps up as Lily comes clean to Carly. What does Lily reveal? Could it be the truth about the perfume factory? Find out when you tune in to As the World Turns this week.
