

Episode #13,699 ---- Molly keeps pressing Holden about what happened between him and Damian on the Docks, but Holden keeps mum. He invites Lily over to tell the children that Damian's gone. Natalie and Ethan accept the news, but Lily feels guilty for putting them through it all.

Lucinda stumbles in on Dusty and Teri at Metro. She senses something between them, but Dusty denies much to Teri's disappointment. Teri tells Dusty she's not a kid and that they could reasonably date but he tells her they're not meant to be together. Teri accuses Dusty of being in love with Janet. Later Lucinda meets the PI (Dusty presumably gave her the contact info for) and she asks him to find Damian and make sure he never returns to Oakdale.

Jack, Janet and Liberty return to their hotel after seeing some cancer specialists in NYC. Liberty will need chemo. Bummed no one could give her a miracle cure Liberty reaches out to Carly and complains about all the Doctors' appointments, etc... Carly reveals she's in NYC for MonteCarlo meetings. Liberty wants to meet up with her at the Met but Carly doesn't think it's a good idea. Liberty, let down, asks Jack and Janet if she can go alone to the Met and while Janet would rather Liberty stay, Jack convinces her to let Liberty go. Liberty runs into a fortune teller at the Met who tells her she has a very short life line. Liberty almost freaks out but Carly, sensing she should turn up at the Met, finds her and brings her back to the hotel. Jack and Janet are grateful Liberty's safe, but Janet doesn't like Carly's presence. Jack confesses to Carly privately that when he's with Janet he feels like he's cheating on Carly. Carly asks Jack to stop trying to make her feel better about the state of their relationship, because it's not helping. She leaves, which they are both upset about. Janet receives a call from Dusty and they both privately yearn for each other.
