

Episode #13,694----Casey finds tired Alison, in Java. She's stressed out over Emily's condition, not just the wedding. They go to Tom and Margo's only to find them squabbling with Susan over the wedding. Everyone tries to pull it together, and both Margo and Susan offer their homes for Casey and Alison to live in after the wedding. Alison can't take the pressure. She goes outside to cool off. Mick calls her and she tells him to stop pursuing her. Inside, Margo expresses her regrets, about Emily's condition, to Susan. Casey tells Tom he'd like to do pre-law and become a lawyer. Casey's confused by Tom's lack of enthusiasm. Alison returns and tells the Hughes she'd like to move in right away. Casey tucks her in for a nap. Later, Tom tells Margo that it's unlikely Casey will be able to be lawyer, having been a convicted felon. Upstairs, we see Mick, peering at sleeping Ali, from the window ledge.

In Old Town, Barbara warns Susan that Mick and Alison have an unholy relationship.

Paul searches Mick's room and finds pictures of James Stenbeck. When he returns to Emily's room he finds Mick and confronts him. Emily stops him from yelling at Mick, and Paul's elated that she's awake. He goes to find a doctor and Mick seemingly puts Emily under a spell and tells her that she should have complete faith in him. When Susan and Paul later talk to Emily about potentially postponing her plan to have a child, Emily insists she would like to continue her treatments with Mick - whom she has complete faith in.
