On Friday, January 23, 2015, The Bold and the Beautiful will achieve it's 7000th episode! As the youngest of the four remaining daytime dramas on the air, I bet there are many of you who remember episode #1, which aired just over 27 years ago.

In honor of this monumental milestone, stage 31 at CBS Television City where B&B tapes daily, has been named the Bradley P. Bell Stage and the 7000th episode is being dedicated to Bell, the show's Executive Producer and Head writer.

As a treat to fans, they have prepared a very special time-lapsed video to show you just what went into the creation of the sets on Stage 31.

The Bold and the Beautiful would like to extend special thanks to I.A.T.S.E. Local 33, 44, 800, 705, 706, the locals involved in the daily operation of the show.
