

Days of our Lives' Deidre Hall (Marlena) is traveling across the networks to Hallmark Channel to appear in the Original Movie World Premiere of Lucky in Love on Saturday, April 5th.

Lucky in Love tells the story of Mira Simon (Jessica Szohr), who feels like it's a prank when all of her dreams start coming true on April Fool's Day.

Even though it's the life she's always dreamed of, Mira starts to realize that actually living this dream is much harder than she imagined. The pressure at work builds up to a boiling point, a busy schedule keeps her from spending any quality time with her friends, and her seemingly-perfect boyfriend turns out to be less than perfect for her. What once seemed like April Fool's Day fortune is turning out to be a big joke on Mira.

With the support of Erin, her colleagues, and her friends, Mira must find a way to reconcile her new "perfect" life with reality. Now that April Fool's Day is in her rearview mirror, can Mira step up to the challenges in front of her and prove that she's "Lucky in Love?"

Tune in this Saturday, April 5th (9p.m.ET/PT,8C) to watch our very own Deidre Hall (Marlena, Days of our Lives) in the Hallmark Channel Original Movie World Premiere of Lucky in Love. Also tune in to watch Deidre on Hallmark's Home & Family this Thursday (April 3rd) where she will be talking about Lucky in Love and Days!
