

We've got exclusive video!

On the cusp of its much anticipated 50th anniversary, Days of our Lives' launches a new, faster-paced show with a fresh look and murder-mystery sure to have fans and critics alike gasping for what's next!

The first murder takes place Thursday, August 27th and the mystery will continue well through the anniversary with many stories that will spin off and continue through the new year.

With a slew of iconic favorites returning this fall, fans will not want to miss a minute of the thrilling story, twists and turns to come. Cast returning include: Peter Reckell (Bo), Stephen Nichols ("Patch"), Alison Sweeney (Sami), Jason Cook (Shawn), Thao Penghlis (Andre), Martha Madison (Belle), Camila Banus (Gabi), and Tamara Braun (Ava).

Check out this exclusive web video below! It certainly looks like things are going to get very heated, very quickly, in Salem. Will your favorite characters get killed off? Who will solve the mystery of today's murder? Will things get back to normal sooner than later? One way to find out. Keep your eyes peeled on Days of our Lives this fall.

Days of our Lives celebrates its 50th anniversary November 8, 2015 making it the longest running scripted drama on NBC. Don't miss new episodes of Days of our Lives weekdays on NBC. Check your local listings.