Happy New Year! But on Monday, January 2nd, you will miss your daily dose of Days as your soap is pre-empted thanks to NBC holiday programming. Have no fear, though. The rest of the week is sure to please, starting with Jennifer who plans to give Nicole a taste of her own medicine. What does Jenn have up her sleeve this time? More importantly, will Nicole fall prey to her machinations? While in more romantic developments, Brady has just what the doctor ordered for Madison. Will she take her medicine without a fuss?

Later, Sami's first day at work brings an unexpected request from Kate, while Marlana makes a request of Will, hoping it may right some of her past wrongs as well. Is Kate right?

Over on the other side of Salem, Bo and Hope confront their problems with Marlana, as Will considers fleeing from his own, as well as Salem. Does Will just walk away? Meanwhile, Carrie and Rafe have a rough time getting their business started, but low and behold, they do get their first client. Is it anyone we know?

In some romantic developments, Chad and Melanie decide to start over. What causes their change of heart? Meanwhile, Brady seeks out John and makes a surprising proposal. What does Brady have in mind? Will John bite? Find out when you tune in to Days of our Lives this week.
