As the week begins, Carly discovers a life-changing aspect about herself. What does this epiphany mean? At the same time, Taylor allows herself to seek comfort in EJ's arms. Does it progress to anything further?

On the other side of Salem, Gabi and Will take matters into their own hands where Sami and Rafe are concerned. They decide to do an intervention. Will Sami and Rafe be receptive to the idea? More importantly, if they participate, will Gabi and Will's intervention work?

At the same time, Kate believes she knows what's right for everyone concerned. She advises Stefano to get Abigail out of Chad's life. Will he agree with her assessment and do as she suggests? If so, what repercussions will he face?

Then, before the week is out, its bad news for Chloe as Philip shares the latest in regard to their shared custody. Will Chloe stand idly by and let others control her life? Watch every episode of Days of our Lives this week to find out.
