Nicole now knows about the letter that Taylor wrote to Fay. As you can imagine, Nic wants to get to the bottom of the correspondence, so she flat out asks Taylor about the letter. Will Fay's response appease Nicole?

At the same time, Rafe2 makes his next move. He tells Roman that he's taking a leave of absence. Will Roman have anything to the contrary to say about Rafe2's announcement?

Meanwhile, Daniel thinks that Carly's emotional reaction is due to her feelings of loss. Is he right? More importantly, will Carly give in to her feelings and allow herself to grieve? Shortly thereafter, Stefano and Victor want to take matters into their own hands. What do these two have up their sleeves this time?

Plus, watch for a Reverend Smyth to show up in Salem this week. There's also a Doctor Watterson. Just why the good man of the cloth and the man of medicine make their presence known this week remains to be seen. To find out just who they are and why they are in town, be sure to tune in to Days of our Lives this week.
