

Episode # 11275 --- Melanie has stabilized but still hasn't woken up and Daniel can't explain why. He suggests to Philip that he and others close to her try to give her the will to live; but Philip doesn't get through to her, nor do Maggie or Brady. In the meantime, Carly learns from Bo that Melanie survived the night but hasn't woken up. She is desperate to see her daughter and she sneaks into the hospital to see Melanie. She is caught by Daniel, but finally convinces him to let her into Melanie's room. She makes an emotional appeal to her daughter but finds it isn't working. As she turns to leave, Melanie wakes up to see Carly there.

Hope learns more about the shooting from Justin, and she backs up Carly's story. Wanting to help, she leaves to see Bo. Hope realizes Bo loves Carly, that things haven't changed between them and it's too late to reconcile.

Justin tells Philip Hope's side of the story about Vivian. Philip calls Vivian, wanting the truth.

Nathan and Stephanie continue their romantic getaway. Nathan, putting his past with Melanie behind him, doesn't check his voicemail after Maggie leaves him a message about Melanie. Later, Nathan catches Stephanie with the letter from Melanie. She makes an effort to explain it is from Melanie, but he refuses to talk anymore about Melanie. Finally, Stephanie destroys the letter.

Daniel comforts Chloe about her hysterical pregnancy and sets up a session with a psychiatrist for her. However, she secretly reschedules and confesses to Arianna that she can't bring herself to talk about it yet.
