

After years of getting the royal snub from the Emmy Committee, Days of our Lives lands Outstanding Drama Series nod this year, along with six other major nominations and five in the technical categories for a total of 13 nominations overall. This is the first time in ten years that Days...

of our Lives has been nominated for Outstanding Drama Series. All My Children gets the most nominations in all categories, but only the nine major categories were announced this morning. The remainder will be announced this evening at a gala event in NYC and are available online now at emmyonline.tv
