Emmy fever is heating up and Soapdom has just learned of the first round of announced presenters for the awards broadcast later this month. Without further ado, let's get to the list...

Daytime Emmy® Award nominees Rachael Ray ("The Rachael Ray Show"), Zack Conroy ("The Bold and the Beautiful") and Jonathan Jackson ("General Hospital") along with Dr. Travis Stork, Dr. Drew Ordon, Dr. Jim Sears and Dr. Lisa Masterson from the Daytime Emmy-nominated show, "The Doctors," are among the first group of presenters set for THE 37TH ANNUAL DAYTIME EMMY AWARDS. The telecast, hosted by Regis Philbin, will broadcast live from the Las Vegas Hilton, Sunday, June 27, 2010 (9:00-11:00 PM, live ET/delayed PT) on the CBS Television Network.

Additional presenters include Rebecca Budig ("All My Children"), Sharon Case ("The Young and the Restless"), Michael Easton ("One Life to Live"), Jon Hensley ("As The World Turns"), Kelley Menighan Hensley ("As The World Turns"), Susan Lucci ("All My Children"), Chris Massey ("Zoey 101"), Kyle Massey ("Cory in the House"), Cameron Mathison ("All My Children"), Kimberly Matula ("The Bold and the Beautiful"), Laura McKenzie ("Laura McKenzie's Traveler"), Kelly Monaco ("General Hospital"), Joshua Morrow ("The Young and the Restless"), Ronn Moss ("The Bold and the Beautiful"), Peter Reckell ("Days of our Lives"), Trevor St. John ("One Life to Live"), Louise Sorel ("Days of our Lives") and Montel Williams ("The Montel Williams Show").

The telecast is being produced by Associated Television International (ATI) with ATI President and Emmy award-winning producer David McKenzie serving as executive producer.

On and as a reminder, The Daytime Emmy Awards recognize outstanding achievement in all fields of daytime television production. THE 37TH ANNUAL DAYTIME EMMY AWARDS is a presentation of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences in cooperation with the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.
