The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS) announced the winners of the 42nd Annual Daytime Creative Arts Emmy® Awards at a stunning awards event last night. The television stars Florence Henderson, "The Brady Bunch," and Alex Trebek, "Jeopardy!" hosted the sold-out, grand gala for over 1,200 attendees at the Universal Hilton, on Los Angeles, CA.

"Tonight's gala is a tribute to the hundreds of nominees that work behind the scenes to make Daytime television the most sophisticated combination of talk, cooking, animation, courtroom, children's programming and episodic drama on the planet" said Bob Mauro, President, NATAS. "With over 1,200 in attendance, the iconic Alex Trebek and Florence Henderson as our hosts, and our Lifetime Achievement for Craft going to Producer/Director Michael Gargiulo, it was a great evening for Daytime television!"

In addition to Ms. Henderson and Mr. Trebek, tonight's illustrious group of presenters included Darin Brooks and Lawrence Saint-Victor of "The Bold & the Beautiful"(CBS), Laura Wright and Chad Duell of "General Hospital" (ABC), Hunter King and Lachlan Buchanan of "The Young & the Restless" (CBS), Casey Moss and Jen Lilley of "Days of Our Lives" (NBC), Judge Marilyn Milian of "The People's Court (Syndicated), John Tesh of "Intelligence for Your Life" (Syndicated) and many others.

The Daytime Creative Arts Emmy® Awards recognize outstanding achievement in all fields of daytime television production and are presented to individuals and programs broadcast from 2:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. during the 2014 calendar year.

Below are the winners in the drama series categories, plus two winners in the special categories of Outstanding New Approaches Drama Series, and Outstanding Performer in a New Approaches Drama Series — namely those that are written and produced for internet distribution.

Soapdom is honored to know and congratulates all the winners!
