

EMMY 2015 ~ The Daytime Emmys kick off with party April 21st

Written by Linda Marshall-Smith
Wednesday, 15 April 2015 00:00

The 42nd Annual Daytime Emmy Awards will kick off the Emmy festivities with a party honoring nominees and shows. Stars from General Hospital, Bold and the Beautiful, Days of our Lives and Young and the Restless will walk the Red Carpet at the Hollywood Museum on Tuesday, April 21, 2015 beginning at 6:30 PM. The Hollywood Museum is located at 1660 N. Highland Avenue, Hollywood.

"This year's Daytime Emmy Awards is shaping up to be one of our most memorable events in our forty-two year history," said Bob Mauro, President, NATAS. "With a record number of entries this year, some 350 nominees, the glamour of the historic Warner Bros. Studio lot and the live broadcast on the new Pop network, this year promises to have more 'red carpet' than at any other time in our storied-past!"

"This year's Daytime Emmy Awards promises a cornucopia of thrills and surprises," said David Michaels, Senior Vice President, Daytime. "The broadcast on Pop at the iconic Warner Bros. Studio, honoring not only the best in daytime television but the incomparable, indefatigable Betty White, will be an event like nothing we've ever done before. Add Alex Trebek and Florence Henderson as our hosts for The Daytime Creative Arts Emmy® Awards at the Universal Hilton with Producer/Director Michael Gargiulo as our Crafts Lifetime Achievement honoree and it will be two galas the community will remember for a long time!"

Stay tuned to Soapdom for the latest Emmy news!