Fans have voted and TV Guide Channel has reported the 20 sexiest men and women of daytime are as follows. After reviewing their list, help Soapdom make our own. Vote on a name TV Guide and fans named as one on the sexiest men or women of daytime, OR nominate your own if the guy or gal that gets you hot isn't on the list.

Vote as many times as you like by signing in and leaving the name and show of who you think is the sexiest man or woman or one of each in the comment log below, no later than August 31, 2008.

Voting is fun, and a way for your opinion to be shared with other soap fans! In addition you could win a prize! One name will be randomly drawn from each category sexiest man and sexiest woman. The winner will win a gift basket from Soapdom filled with beauty products valued over $50.

The winners of the Beauty Gift Baskets will be announced when Soapdom publishes the sexiest men and women of daytime based on your votes. Each name you nominate, or vote for, will count as a vote in the contest.

Good luck and happy voting!
