One Life to Live Previews for the Week of 12-26-11

As New Year's approaches, it's out with the old and in with the new. Or is it? As the week heats up, a beloved couple decides to get married. Who could it be? Viki and Clint perhaps? Later, the disco song "Where Were You When the Lights Went Out in New York City," should be renamed to "Where Were You When the Lights Went Out in Llanview," because that is just what happens as the week wraps up. A power outage is inconvenient to say the least in any situation, but when the lights go out in Llanview this time, things will never be the same. Don't take your eyes off One Life to Live this week to see how it all plays out.
