

New face, new timeslot for General Hospital

Written by Linda Marshall-Smith
Friday, 31 August 2012 15:48

There's a new nurse coming to Port Charles. Her name is Sabrina, and her portrayer is Teresa Castillo (The Secret Life of the American Teenager; How I Met Your Mother).

Here's the thing...

Sabrina is not just any nurse. Oh no.

She's a student nurse and she's very beautiful. Watch for her to very quickly impact the life of at least one of the doctors at General Hospital.

In a nutshell, she will make her presence known on staff very quickly.

The character of Sabrina debuts Wednesday, September 19, 2012.

But before that -- remember that General Hospital airs in its new time slot beginning Monday, September 10, 2012. (2:00 p.m. ET and 1:00 p.m. PT/CT, on the ABC Television Network.) Fans can catch all the intrigue and excitement of Port Charles one hour earlier starting Monday September 10th!