We are just going to be down and dirty with our General Hospital Sneak Peeks this week. To wit -- Sam gets a call from Patrick. It's about Jason. What tidings does Patrick share? Should Sam be worried or upset? All we are able to share at this point is that Patrick will soon overhear a conversation between Jason and Robin. What intel will he learn? More importantly, will he tell anyone what he's heard? Meantime, Sam can't help but feel alone.

Speaking of Patrick and Robin, she soon has a heart-to-heart with Elizabeth. Elizabeth makes Robin a promise. To what does she vow?

Across Port Charles, Sonny gathers information about Jax. Then, as one mob boss does his thing, another does his. We speak, of course, of Anthony who makes important preparations. For what is he preparing?

Shortly thereafter, Carly asks Luke for a bargaining chip. Does he acquiesce? Regardless, Helena is waiting at Wyndemere. Who will she surprise? Plus, why is Johnny applying pressure on Dr. Webber? Will he agree to Johnny's demands? Check in to General Hospital this week and find out.
