

Dante wonders if his luck has run out when Jason confronts him on the roof at the hospital. Jason explains to Dante and a protective Lulu that Sonny has issued the order that Dante is not to be touched.

Later Jason warns Sonny that Dante is more dangerous to them now than ever. Sonny refuses to stop trying to form some kind of relationship with Dante, who rejects him once again. Olivia hotly defends the decision she made when she opted to lie to Sonny and not tell him about Dante when she first learned she was pregnant.

On the other side of town Johnny slips away before Max and Milo discover he's the person who hijacked Sonny's shipment, thanks to Ethan's interference. Luke becomes concerned when Ethan ends up on Johnny's grateful side.

Maxie tries to give Lucky advice about Elizabeth. Nikolas asks Elizabeth if she'd be willing to take a paternity test sooner rather than later. Johnny shows up at Olivia's and they make love.
