

Erica laces into Laura for slandering Bianca. However, Bianca passionately defends Laura to Erica. Later, Leslie lures Junior and Jamie away from the New York hotel. Meanwhile, back in Pine Valley, Adam is jolted by news that his daughter, Skye, is in jail for murder in Llanview.

Back to Laura who challenges that if Bianca were a true friend, she would admit what she knows about the accident on the yacht. Later, Bianca confides in Rain about the fact that it was Greenlee who pushed Laura off the boat. Speaking of Greens, she is touched when Leo defends her to Gillian.

In the meantime, the hotel waiter accurately describes Leslie as the woman who disappeared with Junior and Jamie. Then, in a surprising turn of events, Adam offers to buy ID.com. Speaking of ID.com, its founder, Ryan Lavery, later sells his loft to Greenlee. Meanwhile, Leo and Erica have a falling out over his leaving Bianca alone. Erica literally berates him and he can't take her being on him like that any more. So, he makes a startling announcement. He quits!
