

{mosimage}Ashlee has an idea that could help Grady get a job. What does she have up her sleeve? Will her plan work. Meanwhile, Alan works the police. In fact, he attempts to bribe one, a cop named Maloney, to give him some information. Does the cop take Alan up on his offer?

At the same time, Frank tries to convince Natalia to make a major purchase. Does it have anything to do with the farmhouse? If so, will she heed his advice? Shortly thereafter, Marina and Mallet decide to take their honeymoon after Christmas and not before. It appears they have a few concerns about leaving Daisy alone with Grady and they decide that they don't want to do it.

Meanwhile, Lizzie appreciates what Dinah has done. She takes the opportunity to thank Dinah for standing by Bill. She then goes so far as to say that they're not alone now because they have each other. Will Dinah be as open to Lizzie as Lizzie appears to now be towards Dinah? You'll find out when you tune in to Guiding Light this week.
