

{mosimage}Things go all wrong when Reva holds Dinah captive. Is Dinah okay? Is Reva? More importantly, will someone find them before it's too late? Here's what we do know. When it's crunch time, the phone lines are dead!

Later, when things calm down, Josh offers Shayne a job at Lewis Construction. Is he grateful? Does he accept the position? You would think he might, right? But why, then, when Edmund invites him for a few beers later on, he accepts? Just what does Eddie have up his sleeve and will Shayne fall victim to it?

At the same time, it's kudos to Coop as Blake surprises everyone by throwing a party for his new book. Will he be happy and excited about the event?

On the other side of Springfield, the mistaken identity "lesbian" situation with Olivia and Natalia continues to escalate, and Doris is at the center of the debacle. Will Olivia stand idly by and let Doris think what she thinks?

Meanwhile, there seems to be a snag in the adoption paperwork for Mallet and Marina. Will they be able to get the situation cleared up to the adoption agency's satisfaction? Be sure to watch every second of Guiding Light this week to find out.
