

{mosimage}Could this week prove to be a turning point for Reva? From our sources we've learned that Reva breaks down and Jeffrey tries to comfort her. He does his best but she says she needs to find a life of her own. How will she deal with hitting this crossroads?

At the same time, Cassie and Cyrus deny they are dating. First of all, who wants to know? Will they believe their denial? Meanwhile, Mallet and Marina apply separately for -- and both get -- part time jobs as security people at the hospital. Then, it's not long before they both come upon a suspicious stereo system. Why are they concerned about it? Could it be stolen?

While on the other side of Springfield, Rick has bad news for Olivia. Does it have to do with her heart? Shortly thereafter, Dinah makes it look like Lizzie went away by packing a few of her things. What is Dinah's reasoning for making it appear that Lizzie has left? Tune in to Guiding Light this week to find out.
