Phillip is doing research on alternative approaches to healing when Lillian comes in and asks how he's feeling. Christina sees Phillip reading the books. She tells Phillip that she's a big believer that people can find their own cures and says there's a woman who knows where to find miracle cures. Phillip goes to an herbal shop and opens up to the woman behind the counter about his illness. She tells him she knows people in Mexico who can help him. Phillip takes out a bottle of tincture and squeezes a few drops in his mouth just as Lizzie calls out to him. Phillip covers and says he picked something up for Alex and got some drops for his sore throat. Phillip talks to his gravestone and says he's going to Mexico to get healed and buy some time. Phillip asks Rick for advice on spiritual healers in Mexico "for Alex." He tells Lillian he's going to take control of the life he has left. Lillian is worried about Phillip going to Mexico but Phillip is adamant about finding a cure to buy him more time.

James invites Daisy to go camping with him. Daisy finally relents and agrees. Frank sees Daisy hauling a sleeping bag and she tells him she's going camping with some friends. Rick wants to go camping with James until James clarifies he's going "camping" with a girl. James picks Daisy up for their trip. They arrive and walk off into the woods to find some wood for their fire. James and Daisy start roasting marshmallows. James admits he's having trouble with his dad. Daisy says she's having a good time and they start to kiss. James and Daisy look up at the stars, then keep kissing and are on their way to making love.
