Reva is happy to see her three sons together. Reva asks Shayne if he's okay. Shayne tells Reva that he knows she loves him, but they don't have a connection like she has with Jonathan and Colin. Jonathan hides in the garage, on a call with Jeffrey, and tells him there's no sign of Edmund. Jeffrey wants Jonathan to get back, but Jonathan wants more time with Reva.

Mallet quietly watches Marina as she shows Henry the toy tiger Shayne gave him. Mallet announces he can't be part of the family anymore. Mallet explains that there's a deepening bond between Marina and Henry, and doesn't think he's part of who the real family is anymore. Mallet tells Marina that she has two choices-she can give Henry to Shayne, or Mallet has to go... Marina doesn't like the options and rushes out the door. Bill thanks Mallet for getting Dinah out of town, and tells Mallet to trust his instincts. Marina tells Henry that she thought they could work it out and she wants to do the right thing. Shayne tells her that the more he sees Henry, the more he feels like his life should be about making Henry's better. Marina tells Mallet she thinks they can make it work. Mallet says they have to sacrifice for Henry, and the only choice left is for him to go. Mallet says his goodbyes to Henry and Marina. He breaks down a little as he leaves. Marina comes out with Henry to wave goodbye and they share a last silent "I love you."
