{mosimage}In the wake of Passions being cancelled after eight years and Guiding Light celebrating its 70th anniversary in 2007, The Bold and the Beautiful will shoot scenes from a handful of episodes in Sydney, Australia from February 24-March 2, 2007, Executive Producer and Head Writer Bradley P. Bell announced today. The scenes will be broadcast starting with episode 5023, which will air on the CBS Television Network the week of March 23rd, the anniversary date in 1987 that the series debuted on CBS 20 years ago.

Pending final scripts, it will be announced at a later date which actors will be involved in the scenes taped in Australia, but Bell is certain of this: "The scenes will be very romantic, enhanced by the immense beauty of Sydney Harbor."

The Bold and the Beautiful producing and directing team traveling to Australia for the remote includes Executive Producer and Head Writer Bradley P. Bell, Supervising Producer Rhonda Friedman and Director Deveney Kelly.

In addition to these special Sydney episodes which celebrate The Bold and the Beautiful's 20th Anniversary, the cast and crew will be invited to celebrate the milestone with a private party on Saturday, March 24th, in an as yet undisclosed location in Beverly Hills. Press will be invited to cover the red carpet arrivals, so stay tuned to Soapdom for all the glitz and scoops. Soapdom also congratulates B&B for reaching the 20 year milestone. Way to go!
