It's "Welcome Back Weekend" January 12th and 13th as Rebecca Budig, Debbi Morgan and Darnell Williams return to All My Children

A new original special and key episodes celebrate the return of fan favorites Rebecca Budig (the original Greenlee), Debbi Morgan (Angie) and Darnell Williams (Jesse) to All My Children later this month.

SOAPnet hosts an All My Children blow-out "Welcome Back Weekend" in support of the triple-threat return of Rebecca Budig as Greenlee Smythe Lavery, Debbi Morgan as Angie Hubbard and Darnell Williams as Jessie Hubbard to the series on January 16, January 18 and January 25 respectively. The marathons will entail pivotal episodes of these fan favorites and include a new half-hour special. The special will celebrate the stars' return and enable viewers to get caught up with them, find out what they've been doing, remember why they love them and see where they are taking the roles they originated. The special will feature current interviews, classic clips, a behind-the-scenes look at their first days back on set and reuniting with their former cast mates and friends.

Check out the schedule below and AMC fans, be sure to tune in! This is one AMC blow out you're not gonna wanna miss.
