All One Life to Live Fans, now is your once in a lifetime chance to get up close and personal with your favorite stars.

This October 12, 13, 14, the stars of the long running daytime drama are taking the show on the road. Visiting The Palace Theatre in Stanford, CT; The Akoo Theatre in Rosemont, Il.; and The Star Plaza Theatre in Merrillville, In.

"Loving Llanview" will be meeting, greeting, and entertaining the longtime fans, as well as offering a trip down memory lane of the beloved show.

One Life To Live was created by Agnes Nixon and premiered in July of 1968 and has aired over 11,000 episodes. It was cancelled by ABC and has not aired live since Friday, January 13, 2012.

So for everyone who has been missing their favorite characters and stars, come meet Cassie DePaiva (Blair), Trevor St. John (Victor), Melissa Archer (Natalie), John-Paul Lavoisier (Rex), Hillary B. Smith (Nora), and Tuc Watkins (David).

The event is put together by Celebrity Events Group (CEG). "I believe this show is a chance to hear stories from on and off the set and really get to know the actors. It's a very interactive event." said Michael Gold, President of Celebrity Events Group.

Actors will be in the audience fielding questions, and there will be a OLTL trivia session, where fans try to stump the actors with even more questions. The actors will also recount memories from their years on the show.
