It may be the holiday for giving thanks, but as the week begins, John and Natalie have more on their minds than a good Turkey dinner. They find themselves staring down the barrel of a loaded gun. Who is on the other side of the trigger? More importantly, are they inclined to pull it?

While on the other side of Llanview, Todd takes drastic action to get back what he lost. What is he up to this time? Is he putting any one in danger to get what he wants?

Yes, she's back in town and she is not skipping a beat. Imagine Rex's surprise when he has a run in with Alex Olanov. What mischief is Alex up to now? Then, the action turns to Nate and Starr who are definitely getting closer. But are they having an affair? Don't miss a moment of One Life to Live this week and see.

Oh and One Life to Live is airing an encore episode on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, November 24, and is pre-empted on Friday, November 25.
