

Natalie is starting to become concerned about John. Why's she so worried? What has he done to make her question his state of mind? Can't say for sure, but she's definitely worried about what will happen if he does indeed find his father's killer. Does she have a right to be afraid? Don't know, but she might want to get prepared as McBain gets a new lead in his quest. What does he find out? Will it bring him closer to discovering the killer's identity? Meanwhile, John's mission to track down his father's murderer aside, he is likewise busy with Bo trying to get answers from Spencer and Paige. What are they looking for? Will they get what they're after? In other parts of Llanview, Claudia is back. Oh-oh! What does she have in store for Tess and Nash? Will her schemes tear them apart or bring them closer together? Get the low down on all things Llanview this week on One Life to Live.
