It's a big week for you John and Nat fans. What happens? We're happy to report the emotionally shut off John admits to the redhead that he actually needs her. Yay! Does this mean they're ready to start a real relationship? We certainly hope so, but first John has other things to tend to. What does he have to do? Well, there's that pesky business about making David pay for shooting his father. Does he get a lead on Davy's whereabouts? Perhaps, as late in the week John finds what he's looking for. What could that be? Will it help him in his quest to avenge his pop's death?

Elsewhere, Kevin confronts Kelly. What about? That's an easy one, he wants answers about Duke. What will she tell him? Will they be able to bounce back from what happened the night of the tornado?

At the same time, David and Margaret try to keep the past buried. How do they go about this? Does this mean Peggy has remembered her life in Llanview?

Meanwhile, Evangeline makes a startling discovery. What's it about? Spencer that's what, but what does she find? Will she connect him to Margaret? There are big changes in store for the residents of Llanview so keep up with all the life-altering events this week on One Life to Live.
