

{mosimage}The longest running love triangle in soap opera history is still very much front and center this week starting with Gwen who warns Pilar against revealing the truth to Ethan. Will Pilar listen to Gwen or do what's right? If Pilar remains mum, is it because Gwen is holding something over her? At the same time, Little Ethan is suspicious of his new nanny, "Gertrude." Will he eventually see the light?

While over at the hospital, Julian has wild dreams as he tries to sleep. Does he come down with a case of "night terrors?" Thankfully, Rebecca is there and tries to comfort him. Will her efforts pay off?

At the same time, Theresa plots to get even with Gwen. What machinations does Theresa have up her sleeve this time? Tune in to Passions this week and see.
