

{mosimage}Just imagine how Ethan feels when he returns to Harmony – without Theresa. Will he be able to cope? One thing is in his favor -- Little Ethan. The youngster is so positive and upbeat, he refuses to accept that his mother has died. In fact, he believes with strong conviction that Theresa is alive. Can he possibly be right?

Speaking of Ethan, his once former love, Gwen, actually makes inroads with him this week. But just as things between them seem to be improving, she demands answers about her future. Um, let me rephrase that. She wants answers about her future with Ethan. Will he tell her what she wants so desperately to hear?

While on the other side of Harmony, Pilar tries to convince Paloma that Noah really loves her. Has Pilar yet learned of Theresa's fate? If not, why not? Meantime, Pretty lies to Luis about Fancy. What does she tell him? Will he believe her? The week winds down with Esme wanting to send Viki to boarding school. Will Viki go along with the idea? Tune in to Passions all this week and see.
