DTV #151---Noah and Paloma are pronounced husband and wife. Shortly thereafter, however, Juanita decides to set off the bomb. Meanwhile, Sam's camcorder appears to be broken. As if that weren't enough...

The wedding ceremonies are under way and just before Gwen walks down the aisle, Ethan sees Gertrude enter the church and asks Ft. Lonigan to stop the wedding. Gwen becomes worried but then Ethan tells her that the reason is because Sam, Ivy and Rebecca are not there and he doesn't want to go through with the ceremony until they are present. Due to the tight schedule, Ethan suggests Noah and Paloma get married first.

However, it's not long before Ethan starts to get cold feet and confesses his feelings for Gertrude to Sam and Ivy, but they talk him out of it saying that he just misses Theresa. Ethan agrees and gets ready to walk down the aisle with Gwen.

Meanwhile, Sam is determined his camcorder is broken when it hits the floor. Rebecca then informs Gwen that she has nothing to worry about anymore since their conversation has been erased.
