{mosimage}DTV #134---Ethan admits his feelings to Gertrude. Meantime, Pretty has a new trick up her sleeve. But wait! What's this? Endora is missing! Yup. And there's more. Here's how it played out...

Tabitha tries to convince a reluctant Endora that they really do need to get out of town... Harmony will soon be destroyed!

At the same time, Noah is put off that Roberto has sent Paloma roses. He storms out, looking for blood. Shortly thereafter, Luis and Fancy feel badly for Pretty that she was so desperate for Luis' love she had to fake her pregnancy, but are happy because now they can be together without her coming between them.

While on the other side of Harmony, with nowhere else to go, Pretty goes to Sheridan, who tells her she'll never be with Luis and should just leave town. However, a delusional Pretty vows to fight for Luis.

At the same time, Theresa sadly packs her and Little Ethan's things for the family trip, knowing she's leaving Ethan behind for Gwen to have. Later, Ethan talks with "Gertrude" about his feelings for Theresa and how he could never feel the same for Gwen, as Theresa's heart breaks...
