

Help Soapdom, Inc. Grow by Voting Online Before October 17, 2014

Los Angeles, CA – Soapdom, Inc. a local woman-owned technology business and social network covering scripted serialized dramatic television programming, has applied for a $150,000 grant from Chase as part of a newly launched program, Mission Main StreetSM Grants. Soapdom, Inc. must submit a questionnaire outlining a business plan that will result in growth of the business and receive at least 250 votes to be eligible for a grant. Full eligibility requirements are available in the Program Rules [<https://www.missionmainstreetgrants.com/rules>]. Customers, fans, readers, and community members can show support for Soapdom, Inc. by voting at www.MissionMainStreetGrants.com [<http://www.missionmainstreetgrants.com/business/detail/61981>] using Facebook Connect

The voting deadline is October 17, 2014 and grant recipients will be selected by expert panelists. "Soapdom is striving to grow and build our presence in the community by expanding our content offerings, hiring locally in our editorial and sales departments, and upgrading the technology and design of www.soapdom.com. Receiving this grant would be an unbelievable opportunity to ensure the work of this business continues and thrives in the Los Angeles/South Bay area," said Soapdom, Inc. CEO, Linda Marshall-Smith. "We would be able to cover primetime shows like Revenge, which is filmed in and around Manhattan Beach, and cover soap opera actors who participate in the Toyota Celebrity Race in Long Beach each spring."

Through Mission Main Street Grants, Chase will award $3 million to small business across America. All businesses that apply for a grant and meet the eligibility requirements will receive a special offer from Premier Sponsor, Google. In addition, the 20 grant recipients will be eligible to receive a trip to Google for an exclusive small business marketing workshop with Google experts and a Google Chromebook laptop.

The 20 grant recipients will be announced in January 2015. Consumers can show support by voting for Soapdom, Inc. at www.MissionMainStreetGrants.com using Facebook Connect before the voting deadline on October 17, 2014.
