

Lauren Back to B&B -- GH 2-Hour Episode Rescheduled

Written by Linda Marshall-Smith
Saturday, 01 March 2003 16:00

Lauren heads home, and GH celebrates a few days later.

Tracey Bregman Comes Back to B&B

Soapdom is delighted to announce that Lauren Fenmore is on her way back to Bold and the Beautiful. So far, her return is for one day only.

Tracey Bregman will appear on the show as Lauren in Episode 4045 taping April 9, 2003 and airing (barring preemptions) May 14, 2003.

The character of Lauren Fenmore originated on The Young and the Restless in 1983. Bregman played Lauren on Y&R until the character moved from Genoa City to Los Angeles and began as a regular on The Bold and the Beautiful in 1995. Prior to her role as Lauren, Bregman starred on Days of our Lives as Donna.

Stay tuned to Soapdom.com for all the latest details on Lauren's return!

Special 2-Hour General Hospital Episode Now Airing Wednesday, April 2, 2003

Please be advised that due to the ABC Daytime preemptions for war coverage on Thursday and Friday, March 20 and 21, the double episode of General Hospital and resulting All My Children preemption previously scheduled for Monday, March 31 has been pushed to Wednesday, April 2, 2003.

SOAPNet's special episode of Soap Talk commemorating General Hospital's 40th Anniversary will still premiere on Tuesday, April 1 as previously scheduled.