

Young and the Restless Sneak Peeks Week 10-31-11

Written by Linda Marshall-Smith
Monday, 31 October 2011 11:31

It's Halloween in Genoa City and after some soul searching, Billy decides to do a little trick or treating. In costume for Halloween, he visits the women in his life. Will Victoria see through his disguise?

At the same time, it is order in the court as someone is again in need of Judge Morrison's assistance. Who is imposing on the legal system this week? Does it have something to do with the fact that new evidence comes to light that could exonerate Sharon/ Will she be freed from jail at last?

Plus, former American Idol runner-up and Broadway star Diana DeGarmo will be playing Angelina, the Jersey-girl daughter of mob boss Angelo (Mike Starr). Her first airdate is October 31. Just how Angelina's presence in town will affect the denizens of Genoa City remains to be seen. Keep your eyes peeled to the Young and the Restless this week to find out.