Dr. Olivia and Traci make their presence known in Genoa City as the Thanksgiving week begins. But that's got nothing on the fact that – yes fans -- Nikki returns to Genoa City this week. Thing is she is carrying a heavy burden with her. What could it be, you're wondering? Oh, just the secret that could destroy her family! Will she be able to keep it under wraps?

Speaking of Nikki, her daughter, Victoria, is reunited with Billy and for a little while all is good with the world. Unfortunately, that could be short lived when the truth comes out. Will it tear them apart?

While on the other side of Genoa City, Jack and Genevieve are hosting Thanksgiving. Will the festivities go off without a hitch? We think not, especially with Myrna lurking about. Will she put a wrench in Jack and Genevieve's Thanksgiving? Find out when you tune in to the Young and the Restless this week.

And then there's this...
