Marlena's grieving helped by poignant music

{mosimage}Dear Soapdom,

On Friday, October 19, 2007, when Marlena was grieving and remembering John in her bedroom, they played a song. What is the name of the song and who sings it?

Thank you,

Dear Michelle,

Thanks for contacting Soapdom. According to our sources on the set of Days of our Lives, the song in question and the artist performing it is "If It Wasn't for your Love" by Heather Headley.
