

Ex Guiding Lighter Seeks Your Support for Lung Cancer Research

Written by
Friday, 17 October 2008 09:37

Stephanie Gatschet (ex Tammy) is walking for Lung Cancer Research and Cure. You can help her out!

{mosimage}Hello Friends,

On November 2nd, I will be walking in the "Free to Breathe" 5K to support the National Lung Cancer Partnership. As you know, this cause is very near and dear to my heart, as my mother is a recent lung cancer survivor. While she is doing well today, lung cancer continues to be the deadliest cancer in America. Surprisingly, it is also the least funded cancer in terms of research.

Please consider sponsoring me and my Guiding Light team, or if you're available, come walk with us!! Here is the link to our fundraising page:

<http://www.firstgiving.com/stephaniegatschet1>

I'll be walking with Caitlin VanZandt, Bonnie Dennison, and (probably, though not definite) Lawrence Saint-Victor.

Thank you so much,
Stephanie